January 31, 2012

Go Ye Village, Inc.

There will be no special in the Village Dining Room tonight. We will serve our regular menu.

WANT TO BUY.....A good used sewing machine, need zigzag, NO electronics! Call Maxine Woods at 918-456-8198.

COFFEE WITH JIM: February 2, 2012. Each Thursday morning between 9:00 and 9:45 a.m., our CEO Jim Richardson, will be in the Dining Room to visit with you. ALL residents are invited to come join him. This is strictly an informal get together and not a gripe session. If you are up by then, come to the Dining Room, have a cup of coffee with Jim and shoot the breeze. Each week there will be a different department represented. David Williams will be the first to join Mr. Richardson. Bob Kennedy

A Reminder: Please have your guests let the front desk know if they wish to stay extra nights. Our rooms are reserved and often times we have someone else coming to stay in the room they stayed in. Thank you. Gwen

The Go Ye Village Resale Shop will be open Friday, February 3rd and Saturday, February 4th from 8:30 a.m. until noon. Come see us. Maurice Turney

The Village Views staff will have their first meeting for the year February 6, 2012 at 10:30 a.m. in the Conference Room.

I am interested in purchasing a twin bed with mattress set or a full size bed with mattress set. If you have one for sale please contact me in the Business Office. Thank you. Annette

“SILK” FLOWER ARRANGEMENT SALE: Helps to brighten up your house living space. Come see and your choices. Starts January 31 and on into February until all is sold! We are at 806 Mayberry Drive, 918-458-5069, daily 8:00 a.m.– 5:00 p.m. Fred and Shirley Thiessen

From the Library: Want to learn more about angels? “A Rustle of Angels: Stories about Angels in Real Life and Scripture” was co-authored by Marilynn Carlson Webber (a leading authority on angels) and her seminary professor husband (William D. Webber), and offers a Christian perspective on the ongoing interest in angels. It combines real life stories of reported “angel activity” with biblical and theological teaching about the role of angels in God’s plan. And, for all of you fans of Grace Livingston Hill, we’ve gotten another one of her books for our collection. It’s called “Blue Run.” Come to the library and check out these books. You’ll find these and other recently featured books displayed on the checkout counter. Eileen Mischke

ATTENTION ALL MEN: Our second breakfast for the season will be Thursday, February 9 at 7:30 a.m. in the Small Dining Room. We encourage all male residents to attend and find good fellowship with others. There will be a special video introduced by fellow Go Ye resident Bob Rice telling about some of God’s special watch care over our military in a combat situation. Those who just want to attend without breakfast may come at 8:00 a.m. BUT the fellowship is great during breakfast. Harold Driver, Coordinator

Activities with Pam:

“Tea at 3:00” today will feature Dr. Mary Carlile from Tahlequah City Hospital. She was born and raised in Tahlequah. She currently serves as the Medical Director for Tahlequah City Hospital’s Inpatient Acute Rehabilitation Unit. She previously served as the Medical Director of Traumatic Brain Injury Services at Baylor Institute for Rehabilitation.

Hey! Let’s go bowling! We had such a great time laughing and rolling that ball down the lane. Come join us. You can’t have a better time for the price. $1.75 ($1.91 with tax) will get you one game with free shoes as well as free coffee and tea. We leave from the Village Store lobby at 12:30 and come back at 2:00, Friday, February 3rd.
