Go Ye Village, Inc.

Our special tonight in the Village Dining Room is Chuck Wagon Barbeque. This is an all-you-can-eat meal. You will have the choice of ribs, brisket, chicken, corn on the cob, cole slaw, baked beans, onion rings, watermelon, dessert and drink all for the price of $8.70 which includes tax.

Thank you dear friends and neighbors for your prayers and kind words, hugs and cards during the going home of my dear sister Beverly. I thank God everyday for His blessings.

The Family of Mary Fairbanks

There will be a meeting for all the Village Store Volunteers Wednesday, February 8th, at 1:30 p.m. in the Small Dining Room. Please plan to attend. Refreshments will be served. Arlene Stacey

Thinking of gardening? For plots that are available in the south garden, contact either Leon Friend (918-458-5517) or Bob Stacey (918-458-5812.)

There will be a Low Vision Support Clinic hosted by Encompass Home Health Thursday, February 16th at 10:00 a.m. in the Conference Room. Dr. Lewerenz, from NSU, will be speaking at the first vision meeting. The plans are to have a guest speaker at each monthly meeting. Please sign up at the Business Desk so Shannon will know how many snacks to bring. Thank you. Kathy Williams, SSD/IL

Joe the Beltone guy will be here Thursday, February 16th in apartment 311 at 2:00 p.m. Please sign up at the Business Desk and indicate in the last column the reason for your appointment so Joe will know in advance and be prepared to serve your needs better. Please leave the time column blank so you can write you time of arrival at the Hearing Clinic.

To whoever left a sack of "goodies" at my door, Thank you! It was greatly appreciated, especially the chocolate. Elinor Goertz

COFFEE WITH JIM: Each Thursday morning between 9:00 and 9:45 a.m., our CEO Jim Richardson, will be in the Dining Room to visit with you. ALL residents are invited to come join him. This is strictly an informal get together.

"SILK" FLOWER ARRANGEMENT SALE: Helps to brighten up your house living space. Come see and your choices. Starts January 31 and on into February until all is sold! We are at 806 Mayberry Drive, 918-458-5069, daily 8:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m. Fred and Shirley Thiessen

ATTENTION ALL MEN: Our second breakfast for the season will be Thursday, February 9 at 7:30 a.m. in the Small Dining Room. There will be a special video introduced by fellow Go Ye resident Bob Rice telling about some of God's special watch care over our military in a combat situation. Those who just want to attend without breakfast may come at 8:00 a.m. Harold Driver

The Go Ye Village Resale Shop will be open Saturday, February 11th from 8:30 a.m. until noon. Come see us. Maurice Turney

Beginning Sunday, February 12, 2012, we will again be open for supper in the cafeteria Sunday evenings. We will serve supper from 5:00 p.m. - 6:00 p.m. to accommodate the Chapel schedule. Monday through Saturday will remain 5:30 to 6:30 p.m.

Do you have books you don't need or want? I may be interested in purchasing them for my internet book business. Kathy Classen (Al's daughter-in-law). My phone number is 1-810-360-8081. I will be in the Village through Thursday morning.

From the Library: This week we're featuring an 8 book series in four volumes of historical fiction called Battles of Destiny by Al Lacy. Lacy puts faces on the Civil War conflicts of Rich Mountain, Mobile Bay, Bull Run, Shiloh, Fredericksburg, Gettysburg, Antietam and Chancellorsville. His well-researched narratives present men and women who refuse to let war destroy their relationships. Although this is a series, it's unlike other series. You don't have to take the books in order if you'd rather not. Each book features a different one of the above mentioned battles with different characters. This is a series that should appeal to men, too. Eileen Mischke, Librarian

I would like to talk with someone who knows Lisben, Iowa; Mt. Vernon, Iowa and the Federated Church. If you are interested in visiting, see Ruth Dacken at 4B or call her at 918-456-4763
